

The Chemistry of Jell-O

Tuesday, July 29 7:00 pm

Lynne Belluscio, Curator of the Jell-O Gallery and Museum, will speak on the science of Jell-O. Registration is not required.

Reel Discussions—Special Movie

Thursday, July 31 6:00 pm

Join us for the movie "Infinity" (starring Matthew Broderick) and discussion related to the summer theme of Fizz, Boom, Read.

The Science of Bread

Tuesday, August 5 6:30 pm

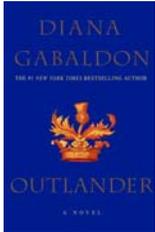

Baker Mary Margaret Ripley (former owner of Scratch Baking and now at Caledonia Marketplace) shares all the scientific tips of making the perfect loaf of bread. Registration is not required.

Outlander Ceilidh

Thursday, August 7 7:00 pm

A ceilidh (pronounced Kay-lee) is a Scottish gathering most often with music and dancing. In anticipation (and it's great anticipation) of the upcoming Outlander show based on Diana Gabaldon's series, the library will be hosting this party with all things Outlander AND Scottish—food, music, trivia, and a craft related to Outlander. Reservations are required and begin on July 14. $2.00 is due at the time of registration for supplies.

Reel Discussions—Special Movie

Thursday, August 14 6:00 pm

Join us for the movie "N is a Number: Portrait of Paul Erdos" and discussion related to the summer theme of Fizz, Boom, Read.

Reel Discussions

Thursday, August 28 6:00 pm

Watch the movie "Monuments Men" and join the discussion afterwards.

SUMMER READING CLUB PRIZES*

Fizz, Boom, Read—Book Discussion Set

Win a complete set of 8 titles for Richmond Memorial Library's Adult Book Discussion Group (meets monthly October 2014 to May 2015).

Fizz, Boom, Read—Mystery Discussion Set

Win a complete set of 4 titles for Richmond Memorial Library's Mystery Readers' Mondays Book Discussion Group (meets quarterly).

Laboratory Beaker Mug & Bookworm Café Gift Certificate

Channel your inner scientist while enjoying your coffee or tea. Mug and gift certificate (4 awarded)

Laboratory Mixer Set

Stir up some concoctions with the new book by Tessa Smith McGovern, Cocktails for Book Lovers, and a chemist's cocktail kit.

Cooking Scientifically

Win the book The Science of Good Cooking along a Fizz, Boom, Read apron, and some kitchen gadgets. (2 awarded)

Fizz, Boom—Read, Listen, Watch!

$50 gift certificate to Amazon so you can choose!

Richmond Memorial Library

19 Ross Street
Batavia, New York 14020

585-343-9550
www.batavialibrary.org

SUMMER PROGRAMS FOR ADULTS

* SUMMER READING CLUB *
* CONTESTS *
* MYSTERY DISCUSSION *
* REEL DISCUSSION *
* SPECIAL PROGRAMS *

FIZZ BOOM
READ

Richmond Memorial Library
18 Ross St., Batavia
www.batavialibrary.org
585-343-9550

Summer Reading Club for Adults

Summer Reading Club

Add some “fizz” and “boom” to your summer by joining the Summer Reading Club for Adults (ages 18 and older)

All readers are winners...but a lucky ten will win theme-related books and prizes. See a list of prizes on the back page.

Directions:

1. Register in the library starting Monday, June 23rd
2. Read books or listen to audio books checked out of Richmond Memorial Library through Friday, August 8th. (eBooks may be borrowed and downloaded from the library's website.)
3. Record reading on your reading log.
4. Collect a prize for six books read.
5. Return your chances on the prizes you'd like to win by Friday, August 8th.

Weekly Contests for Adult Summer Reading Club Members

Each week, stop in the library and participate in the Contest of the Week. It may be a Display Contest (guess the theme), a Trivia Contest, a Word Find or Crossword. Prizes will be awarded to one correct entry each week.

Upcycle That! (Contest)

Use an object to make something completely different: old light bulbs into ornaments, utensils into wall hooks, bicycle wheels into chandeliers, and so on.

Ideas can be found in various places, including Pinterest, www.upcyclemagazine.com, or by searching the library's online catalog under “Salvage (Waste, etc.).”

Return to the library by Friday, July 25 for a month-long display and judging.

Summer Programs for Adults

Sun-Dye Tote Bag

Wednesday, June 25 5:30 pm

Learn to use a new product which uses a chemical reaction when exposed to sunshine to create a colorful fabric design. Class for adults taught by Jen Reardon. Registration is required and begins June 2. $8.00 due at the time of registration.

Reel Discussions

Thursday, June 26 6:00 pm

Watch the movie “Captain Phillips” (starring Tom Hanks) and join the discussion afterwards.

NovelList: Discover Your Next Great Read

Monday, June 30 12:00-1:00 pm

Learn about this online resource to help you find some terrific reading. This short introduction will get you started, and the program will include new book giveaways. Please sign up at the front desk for this free class.

Library Pocket Album Class

Wednesday, July 2 6:30 pm

Jenn Cascell teaches this class for adults to make a mini album using library pockets. Lots of “fizz” with summery papers and extra embellishments. Registration is required and begins June 2. $3.00 is due at the time of registration.

What's with the Weather?

Monday, July 7 7:00 pm

Jon Hitchcock, a senior forecaster with the National Weather Service, will talk about the weather patterns in Western New York that bring the more interesting weather to our region. He will discuss severe thunderstorms for the summer (Boom!), strong wind storms for the fall, lake effect snow, and widespread snowstorms for the winter. Registration is not required.

Adult Book Discussion

Wednesday, July 9 7:45 am

Bring a book you rave about to discuss with other participants. Door prizes will be given.

Knit the Fibonacci Sequence!

Tuesday, July 15 6:00 pm

Linda Daviau will lead you through this “stash bust-er” class by sharing applications of the Fibonacci Sequence, the “golden ratio” in nature, art, architecture...and knitting! Participants must be able to knit and purl. Please bring at least 2 colors of worsted weight yarn and size 8 or 9 needles. Registration is required and begins June 30.

Keep Calm and eRead On!

Monday, July 21 1:00 pm

Is your eReader collecting dust? This introduction to borrowing eBooks from the library will help get you started. If you have an eReader, please bring it with you, along with your library card. Registration is required. Please register at the front desk.

Reel Discussions

Thursday, July 24 6:00 pm

Join in watching the movie “The Book Thief” and stay for the discussion afterwards.

Mystery Readers' Mondays Book Discussion

Monday, July 28 7:00-8:00 p.m.

Read and be ready to discuss Tilt a Whirl by Chris Grabenstein. Welcome to summer at the Jersey Shore in the series featuring John Ceepak of the Sea Haven Police Department. Copies of the book will be available at the library's front desk.

