Summer Reading Club for Adults

Check out what's...."Between the Covers"

For ages 18 and older

Read during the summer in the "Between the Covers" Summer Reading Club for a chance to win a variety of prizes related to books and nighttime!

All readers are winners...but a lucky ten will win a variety of theme related books and prizes. See a list of prizes on the back page.

Directions:

1. Register at the library's Reference Desk starting Monday, June 18th.
2. Read books or listen to audio books checked out of Richmond Memorial Library through Saturday, August 11th. (E-books may be borrowed and downloaded from the library's website.)
3. Record reading on your reading log.
4. Collect a prize for six books read.
5. Return your chances on the prizes you'd like to win by Sat., August 11th.

Register for the Summer Reading Club through July 28, 2012.

—For members of the Summer Reading Club for Adults—

Submit a 4x6" photograph of a night scene by Friday, July 27th. These will be matted and put on display in the library during the month of August. Members of the Adult Summer Reading Club will vote on their favorite entry, and the winner will receive a $25 gift certificate to Wal-Mart for photo supplies.

"Between the Covers" Book Spine Stories (Contest)

—For members of the Summer Reading Club for Adults—

 Arrange the titles on the spines of any books into a little poem, a mini story or a statement and submit a photo of your book arrangement (or a list of books in order) by Friday, July 27. The library staff will judge these entries and select a winner who will receive a gift basket of book-related items.

An example of this is Nina Katchadourian's selection of these book titles:

-A Day at the Beach; -The Bathers; -Shark 1; -Shark 2; -Shark 3; -Sudden Violence; -Silence.
But, even two or three books can create a short story, such as:
-What is Art? -Close Observation.
